Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Femmes fatales are fighting back It s not easy being the only dysfunctional member of a well-balanced family - especially when you re a forty-year-old social pariah with a princess complex and a reputation for borrowing other women s men. Vain and catty, Frida Carey has always been proud to be what every woman loves to hate and what every man is ashamed to know: a floozy. Now she s losing her looks - and, with them, the allure that used to make her irresistible to Mr Wrong. And she s not the only one. Ignored in public by their married lovers, bullied out of jobs by envious female colleagues, shunned at weddings and Christenings, mocked by women s magazines, sabotaged by love rivals, floozies are forever under attack. But they re not going to take it lying down. No longer content to be garden-fence gossip-fodder, watercooler scandal or some man s dirty little secret, Frida and her friends decide to set up a political party to fight for the rights of loose women everywhere. Armed with killer fingernails, mascara and five-inch heels, the Floozy Party is ready to declare war on respectability and political correctness. But even a bad reputation has to conform to certain rules, and Frida finds it s not easy being a high-profile low-life.
