Ain t Got No Press, United States, 2000. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Poetry written on a 10 day trip to Israel by Los Angeles humorous, observationalist poet Rick Lupert. From the introduction: Sunday December 26, 1999 I received a phone call from one of my co-workers asking if I could leave for Israel three days later because she was sick and couldn t go. A solid three seconds of thought later I had determined that there was absolutely no reason why I couldn t. So I did. And there I was for ten days leading a group of college students around the Holy Land with my guitar at hand and cats everywhere. This book isn t really about the cats, but trust me, they were there; at the Western Wall, on top of Masada, in front of the desert hotel at four in the morning, and outside of Mr. Li s Kosher Chinese Food restaurant in Jerusalem. What can one say? Meow, I suppose. Israel is an amazing country. At any location you are a stone s throw from several other countries. If you ve ever watched the news, you know that sometimes stones are thrown.
